INTRODUCTORY

A 127

We herewith present our thirty-eighth volume of the Akron City Directory—1915 Edition. This issue compares with the issue of thirty-eight years ago in the same manner that Akron of today compares with Akron of thirty-eight years ago. The Directory has grown and improved from year to year accordingly and is the only living representative and record keeper of Akron, past and present. In this respect, it is in a distinct class of its own. The City Directory is recognized as being absolutely necessary to the commercial, professional, social, educational, political and religious progress of today. The publishers fully realize the importance of the work and have used every means at their command to obtain only correct information.

In the matter of population, we have counted carefully all names in the Akron alphabetical list and find a total of 57,776. This multiplied by two (2) indicates a present population of 115,552, an increase of 2,774 over a similar estimate made a year ago. Barberton, Cuyahoga Falls and Kenmore also show a material gain in population.

We desire to return thanks to all concerned for the courtesy and patronage extended us in the preparation of this work.

Respectfully,

THE BURCH DIRECTORY CO

THE GROWING DEMAND FOR GOOD PRINTING

Good work pays. The finest quality of printing, that which is used for advertising purposes, as well as the commercial forms, is the kind in which there is the most money for the customer and also for the firm doing such work. This growing demand for a better grade of printing is due to the fact that the public has at last awakened to the educational value of Good Printing.

Now to do good work one must have good material, and it has been our constant effort to keep our plant at its highest efficiency in order that all our work may bear the mark of quality.

That the demand for high grade work will continue to increase is a recognized fact. While we may not have passed through the era of cheapness, there is less desire for the cheap article than there was a few years ago, that is, if the low price is at the sacrifice of elegance, worth and good taste,

We respectfully solicit the business of all firms, to whom honest service and tastiness, with the sincere desire to please, will appeal

Ralph W. Barr Printing Co.
